PUBLISHERS' NOTE

OWING to the death of Mr W. T. Rogers in September last, the Publishers regret that it has been found impossible to trace the titles of the works of reference and the names of those authors of whose kind assistance in the work of compiling this Dictionary the author intended to make full and grateful acknowledgment.

July 1913.

PREFACE

THE idea of a Dictionary of Abbreviations occurred to the compiler, some time before 1880, but it was a paragraph at the end of an article in the Encyclopædia Britannica, 1883, stating that "a Manual of Abbreviations in current use is a desideratum," that caused the work to be undertaken seriously.

For the past thirty years this has slowly grown from occasional notes, during which time many smaller but most useful works, both English and foreign, on the same subject, have appeared, and it is by kind permission of their respective editors that the compiler has been able to add to, and, as far as possible, complete, his own collection.

To these gentlemen, and to all who have in any way helped him, the compiler begs to tender his most heartfelt thanks.

WALTER T. ROGERS.

5th August 1912.
